The premier event at the Fairgrounds is the annual Bolton Fair, which was founded in 1874. It began as the Bolton Cattle Show and originally took place at the steps of town hall in Bolton. The Bolton Fair moved to The Fairgrounds at Lancaster in 2004 where it continues today. The Bolton Fair is one of the last honest-to-goodness country fairs with a variety of performers, animals, logging show, fun food, carnival rides & games, and all kinds of 4-H, and livestock displays--all surrounded in a picturesque setting in central Massachusetts.
